

SCYM Minute 2023.03: Support for Transgender Individuals

SCYM affirms the rights of transgender individuals to autonomy over their bodies and full participation in society. Our testimony of Integrity leads us to respect all who share their truth through word and action; our testimony of Community leads us to care for one another. Our testimony of Equality calls us to discern what Friends can do to support transgender people in their local communities in light of recent and ongoing legislative attacks.